Bridge and Forty-Two Party.
Prominent among the social affairs of the week was the large bridge and forty-two party at which Mrs. J. C. Ambler and Mrs. Harry Hammerly were hostesses at the Country club on Tuesday afternoon. Scarlet sylvia in wicker baskets formed the artistic and brilliant decorations on mantle, piano and tea table, enlivening the more subdued color design in the reception room of the club house. Especially charming was the tea table where tuile bows on the handles of the flower baskets floated in roseate clouds, and the daring color scheme was carried out in all the appointments.

The guests were seated at twenty-four small tables for the games of their choice and the highest scores at bridge and forty-two were made by Mrs. L. G. Wade and Mrs. R. F. Thweatt. Their trophies were beautiful hand decorated plates. For being fortunate in the all around cut Mrs. William T. Lampe and Mrs. J. Winton Callahan received pretty holders for short stemmed flowers.

When the cards were abandoned the guests were refreshed with tea, wafers, mints and nuts. Mrs. John Light of Light, Ariz., and Mrs. Claud Martin of Pocasset presided at the tea table and Misses Josephine Poole, Alberta Smith, Marjorie Cochran, Leta Major, Lois Smith and Susie King assisted in serving.

A Rainbow Luncheon.

"We could not have the rainbow without light," was the explanatory remark made by Mrs. J. H. Griffin who was the hostess Wednesday at a beautiful rainbow luncheon as a compliment to Mrs. John Light of Light, Ariz. Vivid rainbows of tulle draped over the handles of baskets of roses to form the required arc made the two tables in the dining room most picturesque, and tiny, glittering, pots of gold smuggled under the tulle at the end of each rainbow added to the charming effect. Rainbows also decorated the place cards. Twenty-seven plates were laid and an elaborate five-course luncheon was served. After the service of the last course the hostess passed around a deck of cards asking her guests to cut for "the pot of gold." For cutting high cards, Mrs. Claud Erwin and Mrs. Ambler received pretty favors and Mrs. Light was presented with a handsome pair of ear rings.

Enjoying this delightful function were Mesdames Light, Adrian Melton, L. D. Major, Harris, Erwin, Ludlow, Ambler, Dallas, Reford Bond, Blackmon, Brownson, John Major, Morgan Hamilton, Caswell, Roy Smith, Murray, Alger Melton, F. M. Bailey, Chas. Williams, R. W. Shepherd, Olive, M. Corby, Ben Morgan, T. H. Williams, and Misses Anna Kate Gilbert and Jennie Williams.

Birthday Line Party.

The fifth birthday of Miss Jane Witherspoon, occurring last Saturday, will long remain a happy memory to her and her thirty-five little friends who helped celebrate it. A matinee line party at the Sugg was the feature of the entertainment and after enjoying the pictures the guests were taken to Roddy's. There ice cream molded into pink and white animals was served with individual diamond shaped cakes, on each of which burned five tiny pink candles. A diminutive basket holding five small sticks of candy was the favor for each child.

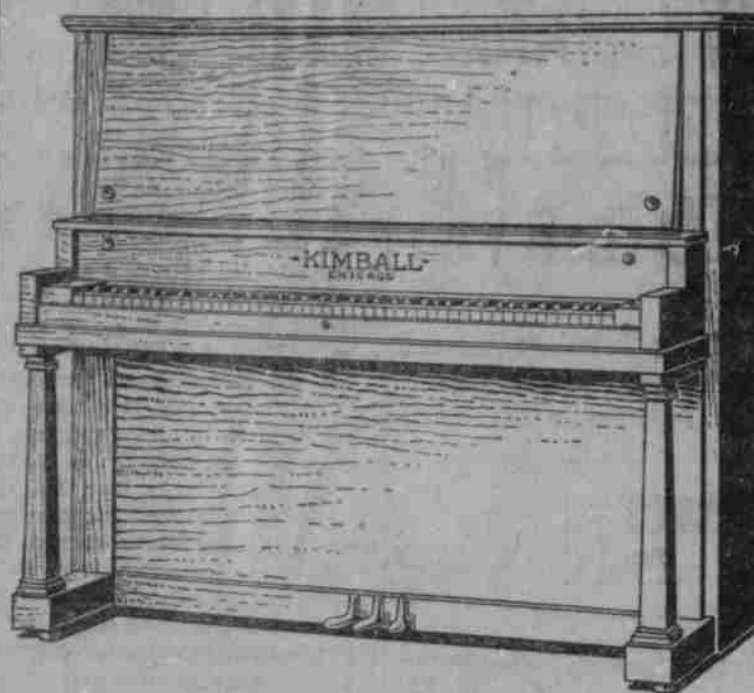

The merry party included Mary Bailey, Frances Blackmon, Mike Slusher, Jane Humphrey, Paul Spining, Granville Williams, Helen Esther Carmichael, F. M. Frey, Frances Frey, Helen Morgan, Mildred Hutson, Marion and Marjorie Melton, Mary Griffin, Charles Hollingsworth, Jack Comer, Spencer Barefoot, Billy Owsley, Rees Dewa, Katherine and Caro Bond, Mary Lee and Josephine Johnson, Dorothy Thweatt, R. F. and Harold Thweatt, Ruth Shaw, Alvana Hamilton, Inogene Melton, Gardner Olive, Alfred and Jo Beryl Betts, Louise Trammell and Milford Reinheimer.

Dinner is Surprise.

A number of Ladies of the Maebes and members of the Auxiliary to the B. of R. T. served a delightful twelve o'clock dinner at the home of Mrs. Ed Estes Thursday, honoring and surprising three popular visitors, Mrs. Ross Day of Parsons, Kansas, Mrs. Ethel Estes of Tulsa and Miss Ethel Marvin of El Reno. Each guest took with her a dainty luncheon and the menu was both varied and delicious. The surprise to the visitors was complete and the occasion was a happy one for all.

Included in the surprise party were Mesdames Dora Godea, Rose Kendig, Lizzie West, Anna Russell, Lela Brush, Cora Sharpe, Pearl Worthington, Katherine Brown, Lou Conquest, Mary LeMaster and Dora Estes, and Miss Pearl Sharpe.

GIVE YOUR CHILDREN A CHANCE

Home is what you make it; your children are going to enjoy their home in the same proportion as you make it enjoyable for them. You owe it to your children and yourself to give them a musical education. It is not a costly luxury—it is now considered almost a necessity.

West Hill Card Club.

A pleasant meeting of the West Hill card club was held Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Myron Humphrey. Top scores were made by Mrs. F. L. Slusher and Mr. Harry Brownson, the favors being a pair of candles in Grecian design and golf balls. Mrs. Blackmon was the only guest beside the club members. A lovely supper was enjoyed late in the evening.

Invitations have been issued to the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Owsley, which will be celebrated Wednesday evening, October 11, at the Chickasha Country club.
